SOURCE:

1. Members of the Soviet Government living in the Kremlin are building new residences in the city and in the suburbs of Moscow since everyone is to move out of the Kremlin prior to 7 November 1954. On that date, in accordance with a special resolution adopted by the Government, the Kremlin will be opened to the public as a museum.
2. The Kremlin Guard Directorate, which has been responsible for the protection of important Soviet officials, will be either inactivated or transformed into a strictly police-type unit to perform routine guard duties.
